

Location

Kingfisher Ecolodge is situated in an idyllic setting just outside Ban Kiat Ngong village in Pathoumphone District, Champasak Province, Southern Laos.

The easiest way to reach us is by private car or minivan booked directly with the lodge, a travel agency or hotel in Pakse. We are happy to provide you transfer pricing upon request. We are also able to arrange direct airport transfers from Pakse International Airport, which has flights connecting to many regional hubs.

If you choose to arrange your own transport, begin by heading south out of Pakse on Route 13. From the junction at Thang Baeng (Km 48, Lak see-sip pet) you must follow route 18A (heading to Attapeu Province) for about 8km, then turn right at a large signboard for the last 2 km to reach Ban Kiat Ngong.

Accommodation

Enjoy one of our 7 spacious Comfort or 9 Deluxe stilted, individual, private bungalows where traditional building techniques and materials are blended with modern concepts and architecture. Each bungalow has its own unrivaled view of the unique wetlands that border the property. The front of each bungalow is made with glass inviting an abundance of natural light to flood the room.

The bed is positioned to maximize the sunrise view, allowing guests to watch as the sun ascends over the serene horizon that extends to the mist-draped forest in the distance giving an incomparable sense of space. All bungalows are equipped with a comfortable double or twin bed and hot water supplied by a solar panel heating system. A vanity unit accompanies the individual toilet and shower arrangement. Tea and coffee making facilities are provided for guests' convenience, air conditioning and mini bar are also provided in our deluxe bungalows. A spacious veranda complements a luxurious lounge for a relaxing stay.

Restaurant

Our two story open restaurant, where Lao and Western dishes are served in a friendly atmosphere, is set directly over our serene pond with the wetlands of Xe Pian protected area and the Bolaven Plateau in the distant backdrop. In the mornings enjoy breakfast on our beautiful breakfast terrace. A selection of beer, wine and cocktails are also available to complete your tranquil stay at kingfisher Ecolodge.
